A NOTE FROM FR. MICHAEL

Thank you, everyone, who extended to me best wishes and committed to praying for me as I transition to a new mission. I am grateful to all of you. I am also grateful to the members of the Knights of Columbus and Catholic Women's League in Capreol, who organized the 'Come and Go' last weekend, which provided an appropriate setting for those wishing to speak with me.

I suspect I am like any one of you who is a parent, who can look back with clearer vision and see how we might have done things differently, if only we knew. For that, I can only say I'm sorry. I regret all the ways I have not lived up to your expectations, the many times I have fallen short in fulfilling my responsibilities, and the various wounds and character flaws which I carry, and which have negatively impacted on you. God, be merciful to me a sinner!

I do hope that I have contributed, in some way and for some of you, in your unique spiritual pilgrimage, and perhaps have helped you along in your journey. I suppose we'll know that in utter clarity one day. And I also hope that I have helped this parish family to grow in its own mission as the people of God. You have been a part of my own journey these past 6 years, and I have changed and grown because of you. For that, I thank you. And I will continue to pray for you, even as I travel down the road to take up my new responsibilities.
