FR. GERALD SULLIVAN:

Fr. Sullivan served for 11 years as Pastor of Our Lady of Peace Parish, and briefly at St. Kevin Parish. He lived in the Rectory in Capreol for the past 2 years, before his death on Friday, August 30th. We are grateful to him for serving our Parish family for those many years. May he "live in glory".

The CWL general meeting guest speaker will be Gerry Lougheed who will speak on "Bereavement."

Open to all parishioners – 7:00 p.m. Tuesday.

THE PREGNANCY CENTER:

Thank you to everyone to donated through the use of baby bottles last spring.

Our Parish donation totalled $3,500.

Your generosity is appreciated, and most especially by those who use the services provided by The Pregnancy Center. Thank you also to those who helped with all the counting and rolling of coins. We hope to make this an annual event in our Parish.

ENTER INTO RECONCILIATION AND HOLY EUCHARIST:

Registration forms are available from Fr. Michael, following any weekend Mass, for those wishing to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation and to begin weekly reception of Holy Communion. The minimum age for those wishing to begin this process is eight. So, if your child will be eight years of age or older by the end of this year, and you wish to practice your Catholic faith with them, please see Fr. Michael in order to begin that process.

The fourth presentation in our diocese, of the CWL program will be held on Saturday, September 14th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. James the Greater Parish in Blind River. All women of the parish are invited to this dynamic, interactive power point presentation that promises to "ignite" your passion for the Catholic Women's League. The experience is worth the short drive ... good things "glow" in Ontario! Bring a lunch. Refreshments provided.

We return. That seems to be a theme at this time of the year as we return to school, return home, return to work, return to a more regular routine. Summer is, for many at least, a pause from ‘the regular’. So we return to what is ordinary.

Isn’t that true for our lives as a whole? We find ourselves dissipated and lax, and so we need to return. That’s true for us in our bodies, our relationships, and also in our spirits. It is why God is known as Mercy, as well as Love. His Mercy calls us to return.

This theme of conversion runs deep in our lives, and as we mature we are able to see more fully the ways in which God is moving in our spirits and calling us to return. It is, in many ways, the foundation of “ARISE Together in Christ”. We are called, through its methodology of prayer, reflection and sharing, to see ourselves more clearly against the horizon of God’s call to return more fully to Him.

I hope many in this Parish will accept this opportunity to return. It is God’s gift to us. And if you haven’t yet viewed our promotional video, produced this summer, you may see it here: <http://www.stkevinparish.ca/arise/>.

It is no small coincidence that the natural world in which we live is called to return in the same manner in which are we. It is the thrust of the seasons, after all. It is also the thrust of maintenance which is always necessary in our world. And so we see the return of our St. Kevin’s worship site roof to a state which keeps the water out. And we also see the return of the parking lot there to a state of renewal. I am grateful to our Building and Finance Committees who worked this summer to bring these projects to near completion.

May the newly sealed and painted lot, and the freshly shingled roof, be a reminder of our own call to return to that glorious state that has made us daughters and sons of God!
