PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL:

Our meeting was held on Tuesday this past week. Laurie Gagnon was present as an invited guest and provided a number of Post Arise options which are available from Renew International.

The Council deliberated for a while, but decided to wait until all the current group leaders and all the current participants have had an opportunity to provide their input about the direction small groups should go in next year.

In the meantime, Pat Partington's Friday morning group will continue and is open to all interested participants, and "Brewed and Steeped Theology" is new, providing another type of small group experience for those who are interested. Other new opportunities may also arise, according to the wishes and needs that Parishioners may express.

Parish (re)evangelization is integrally tied in to our post-Arise direction, and so will follow accordingly.

Fr. Michael provided some background information about his ongoing (last 5 years) attempt to engage the Parish in the sponsorship of refugees. In that context, the following letter from Bishop Plouffe, issued on September 23rd this year to all the priests and parishioners of the Diocese, was read:

I would like to inform you of the following regarding initiatives at the parish level for the Syrian Refugee Crisis.

The Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and parishes are not eligible and are not approved as sponsors for refugees entering Canada. As a result no sponsorship in any format from any Parish is permitted. This specifically means that no contracts, undertakings or commitments for the Parish or any committee can be initiated.

In addition, the parishes are not to provide any financial commitment, or obligations for refugees. However I encourage parishioners, as individuals or in groups, to sponsor refugees in their own names and through their own initiatives.

(Full letter is available on the Diocesan Website)

That being the case, Fr. Michael presented a possible way to navigate around these restrictions by indirectly supporting the United Church in Capreol in their efforts to sponsor a family and by providing them, free of charge, the use of our Rectory there with all its related costs covered. The Council was unanimous in its support of this idea, and initial approval has also been received from the Bishop's office. There may also be an opportunity to sponsor (indirectly) a second family with St. Vincent de Paul's involvement in Val Caron, and that option will be examined separately.

Fr. Michael will provide a verbal presentation of our situation regarding sponsorship at a Sunday Mass in the near future. The hope is that all parishioners will enthusiastically support this initiative, which seeks to provide a safe home for the Christ who is homeless.

LIFE CHAIN:

Our annual Life Chain will take place this weekend on Sunday, October 4th in front of Sudbury's Abortion clinic (Health Sciences North) at the intersection of Paris St. and Centennial Dr. This is a quiet and peaceful witness of presence on behalf of those most vulnerable and marginalized in our society, who cannot speak on their own behalf. It begins at 2:30 and ends at 3:30 in the afternoon.
