NEW EVANGELIZATION SUMMIT:

The dates for this year's summit are May 12-13, at St. Charles College. Bishop Marcel is strongly encouraging laity from all parishes to be involved in this opportunity. All Parish Council members were encouraged to attend, and all parishioners are also encouraged to consider going. More information about the summit is found here: www.newevangelization.ca/ The Parish will cover the cost for any parishioner who attends.

CWL 'New and Renewals' will be accepted before and after Saturday and Sunday Masses.

From our received mail, we are asked to collect stamps - leaving about 1/2 inch around when we are cutting. These stamps can be placed in the envelope on our 'NEW CWL BULLETIN BOARD' to the right of the doors into the Hall.

Busy Bees

Bring your knitting and any ideas you would like CWL to join-in with you to 'BUSY BEES', after 9:30 Mass on Wednesday. Don't forget your 'Brown-Bag-Lunch'.

We look forward to meeting with you.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL:

The full minutes of last Wednesday's Council meeting are posted on our Parish Website. The following is an abbreviated summary of the decisions we reached:

† Gord will look into the cost of completing the automatic door openers at our St. Kevin's Site, with a view to the possibility of applying for some available grant money to cover the cost.

† The Parish 5 Year Plan (2012-2017) will be reviewed over the course of this year, and a new plan (2018-2023) will be written. The current plan is available on our Parish Website. The six subsections will be reworked by individual Council members, who will forward their efforts to Fr. Michael for redaction in advance of our next meeting.

† Council decided to host a Parish Appreciation Dinner in February. Details can be found elsewhere in this bulletin.

HOLY HOUR:

There will be an hour of prayer in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament following our morning Mass on Friday. All are welcome to spend as much time as they like before the Lord. The hour finishes with Benediction.

BAPTISM PREPARATION:

Our next Baptism Preparation Evening is Wednesday, February 15th at 7pm at our St. Kevin Site (hall). Anyone who is considering the possibility of having their child Baptised is asked to consider attending this evening, even if you have not yet registered. Even if your child is not yet born, please consider attending this evening, as it will be one thing less for you to do after your child is born and seeking more of your attention
