PARISH OFFICE:

The Parish office is now closed for the Christmas Season. It will re-open on Tuesday, January 6th.

Non-emergency services will not be available until that time. If you need to be in touch with Fr. Michael between the times he is present for scheduled events, you may contact him in one of several ways:

- 1) He will retrieve phone messages, usually daily. The longest gap in the retrieval of phone messages is usually from Sunday afternoon to Tuesday morning, as he usually will not be in the office on Monday.
- 2) By e-mail. He will receive these messages the quickest, via his Blackberry. Please remember to use his e-mail address (pastor@stkevinparish.ca) and not the Parish address. Messages sent to the Parish account (secretary@stkevinparish.ca) will not be retrieved until Trudy returns to the office in January.

THANK YOU:

While we make our final preparations for the Christmas Solemnities, there is a lot of dedication being shown by our musicians, choirs, decorators, members of various ministries, Sacristans and planners. We are grateful to all of them. We will have an opportunity to thank all of them in our January bulletin – for now, we thank them for the time, talent and effort they are generously giving so that we may enjoy the coming celebrations more fully.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON:

Christmas Day (the Octave of Christmas) begins at sunset on December 24th and continues until sunset on January 1st. The Christmas Season, which begins with the Octave, continues until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which this year falls on January 11th. Although we formally begin “Ordinary Time” once again on January 12th, there is a long held tradition which extends the Christmas Season for 40 days, ending on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (Candlemas) on February 2nd. Many, still following this tradition, will maintain the festive spirit, along with their various decorations, until that day.
