PARISH PASTORAL REPORT:

Every Parish and Mission of the Church must submit an Annual Pastoral Report to the Bishop, who in turn uses these reports to prepare his own report to the Vatican. Fr. Michael just submitted our report. The following are some of the statistics for 2016:

Number of Baptisms:	14	Number of 1 st Eucharist:	18
Number of Marriages	2	Number of Funerals	23
Average Attendance at Sunday Mass	350
Average Attendance at Weekday Mass	11

The Parish Financial Report is next, and will be prepared as soon as we have 'closed the books' on 2016. Our Parish Finance Committee meets on February 1st to review the report for 2016, and to prepare a budget for 2017. Following that meeting, the 2016 Financial Report will be published in our Parish bulletin.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT:

As previously reported, a new "Safe Environment Committee" is being formed in our Parish. To date, the members consist of Nancy Dube, Jim Welch and Aline Radey, along with Fr. Michael. The role of this committee will be to approve and implement the specific policies relating to all the various ministries in our Parish. Most of those policies will be adopted word for word from those prepared by the Diocese; some may need adaptation for our local use. More information is available on the Diocesan Website here: <http://www.dioceseofsaultstemarie.org/forms>

The policy relating to this committee is fourth from the bottom, and describes the responsibilities, qualifications and time committee required.

If you think you might have the qualities necessary to serve on this committee, and you have the interest, please contact Fr. Michael to let him know.

SCHOOL LITURGY:

Fr. Michael will be at Immaculate Conception School on Friday morning this week, at 11am, to celebrate a Liturgy with them. And remember, starting Monday, all our schools are open again. Please drive carefully, as our children are walking to their schools and busses in the dark.

GENEROSITY AND SHARING:

As we come to the end of the Christmas Season, we strive to make generosity and sharing a key part of our lives not just now, but throughout the year. That is good. What is not so good is when we share germs, viruses, and other nasty bugs that cause illness. Those, you want to keep to yourself. So, if you are ill, please remember that you are under no obligation to attend Mass. Illness exempts us from that weekly obligation. If you are sick, stay home. And if you're unsure, at the very least you might refrain from exchanging the Sign of Peace with a handshake. That's where a simple bow would be more appropriate.

CONFIRMATION:

Our Bishop will be here on Saturday, May 20th to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at our 5pm Mass. For now, there is nothing to do except keep the date in mind. It's the May long weekend, so please make your plans accordingly if you intend to present yourself for the Sacrament. Deacon Gord Jenkinson has put a team together for preparing candidates for this Sacrament, and soon will be providing information about registration. This Sacrament is normally available for all Baptised Catholics who are at least 12 years of age.

A REMINDER – 'FIRST' COMMUNION:

Parents/grandparents are reminded that in later this month, Fr. Michael will be mailing a letter to all those who are candidates for receiving Holy Communion. This letter will invite you to the next Parish meeting, where the outline for the program (all the dates for meetings and celebrations) will be given, and the next participation book will be distributed. The letter will be addressed to the candidates, so please be sure to have them pass the information along to you.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES:

The parish donation envelopes for 2017 are now available in the entranceways of both our worship sites. If you used envelopes this year, you have a boxed set with your name on it for next year. We have done our best to sort them according to worship site, but if you do not find the box with your name on it, it may just be at the other site. Just mention this to Fr. Michael, and he will transfer them over.
