Serving the Indigenous people living along the James Bay Coast

It was with great anticipation that Gord and I left for Moosonee, Ontario on July 16th. After a five hour ride from Cochrane, we arrived at the church where many of our friends, the poor, were sitting on the church steps. They guided us to the priest's residence. Fr. Paul greeted us and brought us to the Bishop's home where we stayed for four days. We were fortunate to have time to talk to Bishop Bob Bourgon and we concluded that Saint Vincent de Paul would be well received.

We had a meeting with Fr. Paul, Kelly Harris and Peter Nakogee and discussed what the community needs were and how we could address them.

Their needs are basic staples such as flour, sugar, tea, raisins, baking powder, oatmeal, pampers and pablum. They are in need of winter clothing: coats, hats, mitts, gloves and neck warmers (not scarves). School lunch supplies are an ongoing need. Hockey equipment would be greatly appreciated. Hydro costs are extremely high and are causing distress.

In Moosonee we will have a large storage area at Christ the King Cathedral. Kelly and Fr. Paul had already discussed opening a Soup Kitchen and we could provide for a Food Bank to help with the 10% of their population which would be about 300 people. Fr. Paul will invite other members of this community to get involved and hopefully they would begin a Conference where he would be the spiritual advisor.

There are five communities which could be served by SSVP: Moose Factory, Fort Albany, Attawapiskat, Kachechewan and Peawanuck. The bishop has a priest in Attawapiskat and Fort Albany and he will contact them to confirm their involvement. We must also be in contact with the bands and elders in each community to hopefully get their blessing. We did agree that our first project will offer all communities some help.

The Holy Spirit certainly guided us through this adventure. We met wonderful friends and felt His Presence in each one of them. Gord and I took time to take a water taxi to Moose Factory to explore the community, visit the Polar Bear Habitat in Cochrane. We discovered a great part of our country.

What a Blessing!
