“Thank you & God Bless you”

As you are aware that Fr. Jackson's farewell dinner was cancelled due to Covid-19 virus. The monies collected from the dinner tickets were to go to his future endeavours and we wish to maintain that original intent. However anyone wishing to redeem their money must feel free to do so and bring their tickets back to one of the committee members.

Offering Holy masses is a very meaningful way of showing our gratitude to God the Father; it's also a powerful form of worship to take our intercessions to God. I gently remind you of the significance of this age-old-but-ever-fresh form of prayer.

Gift your parents, children, spouses with a Mass offered on their Birthdays, Wedding anniversaries and continue to celebrate the memory of your deceased family members by offering a Holy Mass for the repose of their souls.

A Big thanks to the two teams of volunteers in our worship sites who are generous with their time and are fully committed to the safety of each and every one who enters into our worship sites. THANK YOU

The Pope's Prayer Intention for August; "The Maritime World"

Let us pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

Temporarily "No" to any used-items

For the time being, our Parish is not in a position to receive any gifts such as food products, used clothes, used eye-glasses, old books or can-tabs. We will be happy to receive them when the pandemic gets over.
