Dear brothers and sisters in the Risen Christ,

Resurrection is the best embodiment of his love for humanity. The resurrection of Jesus is fundamentally a story of love: the Father's love in handing over his Son for the salvation of the world; the Son's love in abandoning himself to the Father's will for us all; the Spirit's love in raising Jesus from the dead in his transfigured body. He died so that we may have life. Therefore, from this solemnity of resurrection, we receive a clarion call to be converted to Love; we receive an invitation to live by rejecting hatred and selfishness, and to follow with docility in the footsteps of the Lamb that was slain for our salvation. During this Easter season, let us respond to this call; to reject hatred and selfishness and to be converted to Love.

I wish you all a Joyful Easter!

Fr.Rex Lumine

SK Knights of Columbus Awards Banquet

Knights of Columbus Council 7368 will be holding their Awards Banquet on Wednesday, June 7th at the St.Kevin's Parish Hall. We invite all current and former knights, and their families and guests, to join us.

Dinner at 6pm, guest speaker and awards presentation to follow. Tickets are $25 per person. Contact a member of the Knights after mass, or call:

Greg Reilly at 705-665-0395, or Roger Brideau at 705-969-2803.

Personal Care Items for Those in Need

The CWLs of OLP & SK are still collecting personal care items for both men & women.

A collection box for these personal items has been placed in the foyers of our churches for all parishioners who wish to contribute. Inner City Home will be the recipient of these items. Please, no items with blades (such as razors), or products containing alcohol (some shaving products & hand sanitizers contain alcohol).

After speaking with Inner City Home, here are some ideas: feminine hygiene products, bars soap, deodorant, toothbrush, toothpaste, dental floss, hand cream, shampoo & conditioner (they can portion larger bottles), hairbrush, comb, shaving cream, socks, mitts, gloves (they have lots of hats currently), bandaids, small travel bag to hold these items. They would also appreciate children's products such as bodywash, shampoo and small toothbrushes.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul - St. Kevin's Conference

We would like to thank the parishioners for their generous donations during Lent. Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter, we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice. It is then that we are truly Easter people! As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them Easter hope and joy.

St Kevin's CWL invites you to a

The Resurrection of the Lord

Universal Prayers

April 9th, 2023

For God's holy people, who have been brought through the saving waters to a land of promise: May we proclaim joyfully, with our lips and our lives, the Good News of Christ's victory over sin and death.

We pray to the Lord.

For all the peoples of the earth during this festive of Christ's Resurrection: May the gloom of malice and evil yield to a spring time of sincerity and truth.

We pray to the Lord.

For those bound by sin or oppressed by evil: May forgiveness of sins and spiritual freedom be theirs with Easter joy.

We pray to the Lord.

For all who are in need: that the Risen Lord will encounter and bring hope, healing, and strength to the poor, the sick, refugees, and run-away children

We pray to the Lord.

For the sick and suffering members of our Parish family, and most especially for those who have been commended to our prayers through our Parish Prayer Ministry.

We pray to the Lord.

For our brothers and sisters who have died in Christ, and for the family members and friends who mourn their passing and await their rising.

We pray to the Lord.

Learning “Alleluia”

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I overheard this conversation in a coffee shop:

Child: Mom, I wouldn't have to go to school today. I could stay home with you.

Mom: I know, Joe, but I think Mrs. Burns would miss you.

Child: But won't you miss me, Mom?

Mom: Sure, Joe, but I know you'll be back in the afternoon, and I can be with you then.

Child: But I could help you in the kitchen.

Mom: What do you think you'll be doing in school today? It's getting close to Easter. I bet Mrs. Burns will let you make bunnies.

Child: Yeah, maybe. Mom, I think my tummy hurts.

Mom: Oh, I think it'll get better once you're busy in school.

Child: Mom, couldn't I stay home with you today? I'll miss you.

Mom: I know you will, Joe, but it's only for a couple of hours. How's your apple juice?

Child: OK. Mom, I think it would be OK if I stayed home today.

By the time they left, it looked as if Joe was going to school. Joe was learning an important lesson in life. Sometimes we have to do what we don't want to; we have to go into what seems to be “the tomb of death” if we're going to find life.

Easter's Gospel is that of Peter and John going and finding the tomb empty. Curiously, they didn't become believers until they entered the tomb, until they entered death's home. It's how faith happens, finding life when we expected only death and recognizing the hand of God in it. ●

Reflect

Have you ever had a Lazarus Experience—called out of a dark place into the light?

Let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 CORINTHIANS 5:8
