Universal Prayers

March 31, 2024

Let's
Pray
Together

For the people of God, brought through saving waters to a land of promise: may we proclaim with joy, with our lips and our lives, the Good News of Christ's victory over sin and death.

We pray to the Lord.

For all peoples of the earth during this festival of Christ's Resurrection: may the gloom of malice and evil yield to a springtime of sincerity and truth.

We pray to the Lord.

That those newly Baptised into the death and resurrection of Christ may walk always with Christ in newness of life.

We pray to the Lord.

That people in our community discovering God's promise may respond to Jesus' call to serve His people as priest or religious sister.

We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died and whose lives are now hidden with Christ in God, and that they live forever with Christ in the glory of the Resurrection.

We pray to the Lord.

*Then the other disciple also went in,
the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed.*

JOHN 20:8

Life without a Blankie

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

F aith can have the look of high dives and learning to ride a bike without training wheels and life without one's "blankie." All are confrontations with the specter of death asking us to have faith. From youth to old age, our lives seem to be laced with the loss of control, and unless we embrace such moments, not only will we never really grow up, neither will we ever become people of faith who live in the resurrection.

The Easter Gospels are about women and men who arrive at the tomb but hesitate going in; it is the home of death. Yet they become believers after they have entered that home of death and discover it to be abandoned. Over the years, I have become convinced that the only way to become a believer in the resurrection is to walk into the tomb yourself and there discover that where you thought death was present now has been abandoned. That is the pattern of coming to faith.

Usually such moments do not have the look of faith. They tend to seem more akin to death than any promise of new life—like having to move to a new city or a new school, or abandoning an addiction, or confronting a problem through counseling, or aging, or grieving over lost love. They all can have the look of tombs yet they are also where we find the beginnings of new life. Risk it often enough and so discover new life, and we begin to believe in the reality of resurrection—Jesus' and ours. ●

Reflect

Have you ever experienced life flowing from what appeared to be a death?
